PROFILE

I am a 3rd-year Computer Science & Data Science student with a strong focus on the intersection of technology, leadership, and public policy. Currently serving as the College President at CR Rao AIMSCS, I have hands-on experience managing student governance, large-scale event budgets, and grassroots political organizing with NSUI Telangana and UoH student politics. I believe in leading from the front and learning by doing. Alongside my leadership roles, I build real-world software solutions—ranging from AI-driven tools for agriculture to cloud data analytics under ISRO mentorship. I want to use this dual experience to bridge the gap between technology and public policy execution at the Rishihood Policy BootCamp.
